Code of Ethics for Company Directors

(1) PRINCIPLE

The principle of this code is based on principles in relation to sincerity, integrity, responsibility and corporate social responsibility.

(2) OBJECTIVES

This Code of Ethics is formulated to enhance the standard of corporate governance and corporate behaviour with the intention of achieving the following aims:

- a. To establish a standard of ethical behaviour for directors based on trustworthiness and values that can be accepted, are held or upheld by any one person.
- b. To uphold the spirit of responsibility and social responsibility in line with the legislation, regulations and guidelines for administering a company.

(3) DEFINITION

In the context of this code, a company director means any person who holds the position of director in a corporation irrespective of any designation used, including anyone who follows the directives and advice of a corporate director and who usually takes action, as well as an in-turn or substitute director. A director also includes both executive and non-executive directors as well as executive and non-executive chairpersons.

(4) CODE OF ETHICS

In the performance of his duties, a director should at all times observe the following codes:

Corporate Governance

- Should have a clear understanding of the aims and purpose, capabilities and capacity of the company;
- Should devote time and effort to attend meetings and to know what is required of the board and each of its directors, and to discharge those functions;
- Should ensure at all times that the company is properly managed and effectively controlled;
- Should stay abreast of the affairs of the company and be kept informed of the company's compliance with the relevant legislation and contractual requirements;
- Should insist on being kept informed on all matters of importance to the company in order to be effective in corporate management;
- Should limit his directorship of companies to a number in which he can best devote his time and effectiveness; each director is his own judge of his abilities and how best to manage his time effectively in the company in which he holds directorship;
